

FranceStudentHomeStays.com

205, bd Vincent Auriol
75013 PARIS

Quality Charter

Host Families are committed to:

- furnishing upon the student's arrival all necessary information on public transportation to get to the school;
- in general, providing tourist information on Paris and France;
- in particular, providing information on neighbourhood shopping; Proposing an accommodation in conformity with the rules and regulations on security and hygiene;
- bed linen are changed every two weeks and the bath towels weekly
- providing a WI-FI connexion, if possible, and as long as the Host has Internet;
- proposing to solve any problem immediately with the student and/or with France Student HomeStays;
- handing over the Host Family's Rules and Regulations to the student upon arrival, together with the keys;
- accepting to help out, as much as possible, to make the student's stay as pleasant as possible.

Arrival of your student in Paris:

For families who may in certain circumstances, exceptionally, it may be desirable to come to accommodate the student, the day of his arrival in his school. (only if the school requires it)

Stay France will specify the address of the school and all terms, in its time.